DEATHS.

In this town, on the 12th inst. Mrs. Sarah Ann Parker, wife of Mr. Isaac Parker, aged 27 years. Mrs. Parker was truly an amiable woman—an affectionate wife—a kind mother, and a respected neighbour—and more than all, she gave good evidence of being a christian.—Com.

In this town, Sarah Sandborn, aged two years and three months, daughter of John P. and Charlotte G. Sargeant.—Printers in New York and Philadelphia, are requested, &c.

In Hooksett Village, March 13, Hannah Jane, only child of Eli P. and Martha Roberts, aged three years, two months, and 15 days.

This lovely bud so young and fair,
Called hence by early doom,
Came but to show how sweet a flower
In paradise might bloom.—Com.

In Salisbury, March 30, Widow Mercy Hazen, aged 79.—Printers in Vt. &c.

In Newtown, N. H. April 9, a child of Jacob Gale, ag. 15 months. April 11, Widow Thompson, aged about 100 years.

In Windham, April 6, John Hopkins Esq. aged 63. Printers in Maine are &c.

In Cincinnati, Ohio, Thomas Smith, a very promising son of Joseph Smith, Esq. aged 17

In Ossipee, Hermon R. F. Dore, son of Mr. Ezekiel Dore, aged 6 years and 5 months.

In Tuftonborough, Joseph William, child of Mr. Jonathan Leavitt, aged two years.

In Newington, of consumption, Mr. Thomas Pickering, 4th, aged 29, son of the late Gee Pickering, Esq.

In Portsmouth, at the Jail, Mr. David Colly, aged about 30. He was imprisoned in 1828, for a murder committed in Plaistow, while in a state of derangement—and has never since been sufficiently sane to admit of a trial

In Portsmouth, Haven Sherburne, aged 11 years, a child of Mr. George Fishley.

In Warner, April 13, after a distressing illness of ten days, Lois Currier, daughter of Stephen Currier aged 24 years.

In Atkinson, on the 11th of March last, of asthmatic consumption, Mr. Aaron Page, aged 41. He has left an aged father, mother, wife, and two children to mourn his loss; he bore his last sickness with truly christian fortitude and resignation, and has left to his bereaved widow and numerous friends the consoling hope that he has exchanged a world of sorrow and pain, for one of joy and unfading glory. Printers in N. H. are requested, &c.

In Newtown, Andrew, Jr. son of Mr. Jacob Gale, aged 17 months.
