

Lucia Parker et al. brought a second injunction suit today against the County Treasurer to restrain him from collecting the special sewer assessment.

Mr. Burton Hall and Miss Lola Goodwin, both of this city, were united in marriage today at the home of the groom's mother in Los Angeles. The bride is the sister of ex-Councilman Charles Goodwin.

The eastern capitalists, who recently purchased the Lincoln mines, are expected here in a few days. They expect to erect a smelter on this property or at the Banner mine which is nearby.

The directors of the Tucson Street Railway Company held a meeting last night to take some measures to extend the line and improve the service. No definite action has yet been taken.