

Karen Law

CHARLES CITY — Karen (Mrs. Basil) Law, 55, of 705 Ninth Ave., died Saturday (Jan. 18, 1997) at home.

Funeral services will be held at 1 p.m. Wednesday at Bethany Alliance Church with the Rev. Michael Downey of the Evangelical Free Church officiating. Burial will be in Sunnyside Memory Gardens.

Friends may call at the Hauser Funeral Home from 1 to 9 p.m. Tuesday, where the family will greet friends from 6 to 8 p.m., and on Wednesday from 9 to 10:30 a.m. and an hour prior to the services at the church.

Karen Kay Duncan Law was born Aug. 19, 1941, in Bassett.

Survivors include her husband, Basil, of Charles City; four daughter, Becky Vermillion of Ames, Christine Cleveland of Charles City, Linda Lawman of Hampton and Rachel Law of Ames; three grandchildren; her mother, Arvana Boyd of Charles City; her father and stepmother, Bill and Ruth Duncan of Ionia; one brother, Jim Duncan of Golden, Colo.; and three stepsisters, Sharon Tieskotter and Jane Hammel, both of Charles City, and Lori Jenkins of Sioux City.

She was preceded in death by her stepfather and two infant children.

Karen Duncan Law Obituary

Clipped By:

ralph7301

Tue, Mar 3, 2020