Star-Herald (Scottsbluff, NE) - Friday, November 12, 2010

Deceased Name: Richard E. McNatt

Richard E. McNatt, 72, passed away Sunday, Oct. 24, 2010, from complications with Lewy Body Dementia.

Please join us to celebrate the life of Richard E. McNatt. A memorial service is being held at the England Family Mortuary located at 27135 Madison Ave., Temecula Calif. 92590 Nov. 24, at 10 a.m. A reception will immediately follow at The Colony Community Clubhouse located on Colony Drive in Murrieta, Calif.

Richard was born in Denver and predeceased by his father Victor McNatt, mother Gertrude Tando, and stepmother, Mary Ogborn. He grew up in Scottsbluff, where he was a 1956 Graduate of Scottsbluff High School. He was married in the fall of 1959 to his high school sweetheart, the former Ilene Adams. Richard finished his teaching credential at Chadron State College (Grad. 1963), embarking on a teacher fellowship program where he finished his Master's degree in Mathematics at the University of Utah (Grad. 1966). Through this teaching fellowship, he formed a life long bond with Dr. Holland Payne who influenced him to move to California.

Richard settled down in Pleasanton, Calif. for 28 years. He enriched the lives of many students during his 38 years of teaching. He taught at Robertson Junior High School and Washington High School in Fremont, Calif. Upon retirement in 1998, the couple moved to Murrieta, Calif.

He was a devoted husband, father, grandfather, brother, friend, and educator. He enjoyed watching sports, especially watching, with great pride, his kid's and grandkid's games.

Survivors include his loving spouse of 51 years, Ilene McNatt; children Carrie and Jose Gorospe of Santa Maria, Calif., Randy and Christy McNatt of Atlanta, Ga., Michelle and Mark Roccoforte of Santee, Calif., and Mark and Ruomu McNatt of Novi, Mich.; grandchildren, Christina Gorospe, Joshua Gorospe, Bryan McNatt, Kyle McNatt, Amanda Roccoforte, Anthony Roccoforte, Zanna McNatt, and Mason McNatt; brother, Jack and Jeri Ogborn of Torrington, Wyo., and sister, Vicki and Fred Birdwell of Greeley, Colo.
