Hogg-Sizemore Rites Read in Yule Setting

MULLENS—Miss Ellen Bee Sizemore, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kelly Sizemore of Saulsville, became the bride of Stephen Henry Hogg, son of Mrs. S. T. Hogg of Mullens Hill, Sunday afternoon.

In a candlelight setting of poinsettias and greenery the Rev. O. H. Dorsey performed the double ring ceremony at 4 o'clock at the First Methodist Church.

A program of wedding music was played at the organ by Mrs. Woodrow Houck, who also accompanied Miss Marion Manning of Oceana when she sang "O Promise Me," and "Because."

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was attired in a white wool jersey frock with seed pearl and rhinestone trim. Her hat was also white with similar trimming. She carried a white prayer book topped with pink rosebuds.

Miss Janet Meredith was maid of honor wearing a dress of blue faille with pink and black accessories. Her flowers were a corsage of white pompoms.

Hiram Hogg was best man for his brother.

The Moran Avenue home of the bride's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. J. Perry Evans, was decorated in keeping with the yuletide season for the reception which followed the ceremony.

Assisting with serving were Mrs. Mae S. Belcher, Miss Margaret Farley, and Miss Nancy Joan Smith.

When the newlyweds left for an undisclosed wedding trip the bride had changed to a dress of gold wool jersey with brown accessories.

Now employed by the Wyoming County Board of Education as a teacher at Herndon High School, the bride was graduated from Concord College and did graduate work toward her master's degree at Columbia University the past summer. She is a member of Delta Sigma Epsilon, social sorority.

Her husband, employed as a chemist for United States Steel at Gary, was also graduated from Concord College and attended Marta Sigma Epsilon, social sorority, shall College the past summer. He is affiliated with Kappa Sigma Kappa, social fraternity.
