

EMERALD GREEN GOWNS with matching bandeaus worn by attendants were regal accent at white wedding of Miss Joanne E. Pauley and Bentley F. Kennedy. Floyd Huff photo

ATTENDANTS' VIOLET-hued gowns were enriched by the lovely American Beauty roses they carried at wedding of Miss Jean Ann Diether and Robert Blackburn. Berets Alberts photo

Joanne Pauley Wed to B. F. Kennedy; Jean Diether Becomes Mrs. Blackburn

Beverly Hills Rite Read for Deb

BY SUSAN AVEN

Miss Joanne Elizabeth Pauley, a 1953 Las Madriñas debutante, exchanged her nuptial vows with Bentley Francis Kennedy Saturday afternoon in Good Shepherd Catholic Church of Beverly Hills which was exquisitely decorated with white flowers.

Delicate tropical ferns accented these flowers adorning the aisle as the gracious daughter of Mrs. Harold Raymond Pauley was escorted to meet her bridegroom by her uncle, Edwin W. Pauley.

Her bridal robes of silk satin billowed into a bouffant skirt and were embellished by seed pearls crowning imported lace. A matching coronet held her fingertip veil.

Honor Attendant

Mrs. Lawrence Broeren of Atherton, Cal., honor attendant, held her bouquet of lilies of the valley sprayed by small orchids. Misses Susan Pauley, Margaret Anderson, Louise Cavanaugh, Peggy Sibert, Kay Ebert, Martha Lynch and Patsy Pauley completed her bridal entourage.

The bridegroom's father, Frank Kennedy of New York City and Miami Beach, acted as his son's best man. Groomsmen who had escorted guests to their places now stood at the altar flanked by graceful urns filled with flowers. They were Gene Bryson, Charles Brady, Michael Cantillon, Scott Green, Edward Hunter and Donn Tognazzini.

Turn to Page 11, Column 2

KENNEDY-PAULEY

Continued from First Page

Reception Held

The reverent ceremony was followed by a festive reception at the home of the bride's mother. White and yellow chrysanthemums which filled the house were repeated in the garden, where white lilies floated in the pool.

After guests had been greeted by Mrs. Pauley in a beige-and-pink brocade sheath, and Mrs. Kennedy in a peacock-green silk taffeta gown, they mingled about tables under a marquis.

Mexico Honeymoon

Following a honeymoon in Mexico City and Acapulco, the newlyweds will live in Parklambrea Towers.

Joanne, daughter of the late Howard Raymond Pauley, was graduated from Marlborough and attended Stanford and UCLA, where she became a Kappa Kappa Gamma. She is an active member of the Assistance League. Her grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Valerio Tognazzini of Santa Ynez Valley, and the late Mr. and Mrs. Elbert Pauley of Birmingham, Ala., and San Marino. Bentley, who is also the son of the late Mrs. Frank Kennedy (Elizabeth Bentley Eckman) of Richmond, Va.,

attended Loyola University and is an alumnus of UCLA, where he was a Phi Kappa Psi. He is the grandson of Mrs. Joseph Neldon Eckman of Richmond, Va., and the late Mr. Eckman and of the late Mr. and Mrs. Louis Kennedy of Chicago.