

Elsa Pottala Married in Santa Barbara Ceremony

Miss Elsa Arbogast Pottala, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arne Eric Pottala of Chatsworth, and Robert Van Petten Pauley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin W. Pauley of Beverly Hills, were married during a ceremony at All Saints By-the-Sea in Santa Barbara.

The bride wore a gown of ivory peau de soie appliqued with lace. Her veil of French illusion was held by a crown of lillies of the valley and she carried a bouquet of Eucharist lilies.

Miss Mary F. Pottala, the bride's sister, was maid of honor and attendants included Mrs. Ellis J. Alden, Mrs. Richard Hillier, the bridegroom's sister, Mrs. Thomas C. Makofske and Miss Lynn D. Gates.

The bride's attendants wore green silk linen A-line dresses and matching hats and carried bouquets of yellow and white gladioli.

Dr. Stephen M. Pauley, the bridegroom's brother, was best man and ushers were Davidson Neukom, Dean Gargaro, William Gargaro Jr., James McNiel and Richard Reinis.

After the ceremony the couple received guests at a reception in the Santa Barbara Biltmore.

The couple will live in Waimanalo, Oahu, Hawaii until September when the bridegroom will be a participant in the CORO Foundation Internship Program in San Francisco.

The bride attended UC Santa Barbara and was graduated with honors from Smith College. She is a member of the Smith

Mrs. Robert Van Petten Pauley

Norcross photo

College Club of Los Angeles.

The bridegroom attended Deerfield Academy and Menlo College where he was student body president. He was graduated with a political science major from UC Santa Barbara where he played varsity football.

A fourth generation Californian, the bridegroom is the grandson of the late Mr. and Mrs. Robert McHenry who lived in Modesto and the late Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Pauley who lived in Pasadena.

The bride is the granddaughter of Elwood J. Foust of Morgantown, Pa., and the late Mrs. Foust and of the late Mr. and Mrs. John Pottala who lived in Fitchburg, Mass.