

The image shows the Washington State Capitol building, a large neoclassical structure with a prominent dome and a portico of columns. In the foreground, there are dense, blooming pink cherry blossom trees. The sky is filled with soft, colorful clouds in shades of blue, purple, and orange, suggesting a sunset or sunrise. The text is overlaid on the upper right portion of the image.

From statehood until 1930, legislative vacancies were filled by special election, writs for which were issued by the governor. Vacancies in the legislature after 1930 have been filled by appointment of the legislative authority(ies) of the county(ies) in which the vacancies occur and, since 1957, the person appointed must reside in the same district and be of the same party as the legislator vacating the office and be one of three nominees submitted by the party's county(ies) central committee. Appointees served until the next general election. Since 1953, leaves of absences have been granted for active military duty service with appointing authorities filling the vacancy with temporary successors. 73.16.041 RCW, 36.32.120(6) RCW; WA Constitution, Art. HISTORY OF REDISTRICTING AND REAPPORTIONMENT IN WASHINGTON STATE

1889 CONSTITUTION ADOPTED

Article II, Sec. 2:

“The house of representatives shall be composed of not less than sixty-three nor more than ninety-nine members. The number of senators shall not be more than one-half nor less than one-third of the number of members of the house of representatives. The first legislature shall be composed of seventy members of the house of representatives, and thirty-five senators.”

Article II, Sec. 3:

“... and also after each enumeration made by the authority of the United States, the legislature shall apportion and district anew the members of the senate and house of representatives, according to the number of inhabitants . . .”

Article XXII, Sec. 1 and 2:

“... the state shall be divided into twenty-four senatorial districts . . . and the representatives shall be divided among the several counties . . .”

1890 Legislature passed a redistricting bill creating 34 single-member senatorial districts and 49 representative districts, which contained from one to three representatives, depending on the population of the district, for a total of 78 representatives. (Effective date: September, 1890)

1899 Legislature passed a bill creating Ferry County. It was included in the 2nd senatorial district and constituted the 50th representative district. (C 18 L 99)

Legislature passed a bill creating Chelan County. It was included in the 1st senatorial district and constituted the 51st representative district. (C 95 L 99)

1901 Legislature passed a redistricting and reapportionment act creating 42 single-member senatorial districts and 56 representative districts, which contained from one to three representatives, depending on the population of the district, for a total of 95 representatives. (C 60 L 01– Effective date: January, 1903) (This act was vetoed by the Governor on March 4, 1901, and returned to the Senate. The act was passed over the Governor’s veto on March 4, 1901 by the Senate, and on March 6, 1901 by the House of Representatives.)

1905 Legislature passed a bill creating Benton County. It was included in the 15th senatorial district and constituted the 57th (later the 58th) representative district. (C 89 L 05) (In 1911, the 57th representative district was changed to the 58th representative district. Remington and Ballinger’s Code, Sec. 6883.)

1907 Legislature divided Chehalis County and named the new portion Grays Harbor County. It was included in the 21st senatorial district and became the 30th representative district. (C 47 L 07) Later, however, the Washington State Supreme Court ruled that this action was unconstitutional.

1909 Legislature passed a bill creating Grant County. It was included in the 1st senatorial district and constituted the 58th (59th) representative district. (C 17 L 09) (In 1911, the 58th representative district was changed to the 59th representative district. Remington and Ballinger’s Code, Sec. 6883.)

Legislature passed four redistricting bills which made boundary changes in the 7th, 8th, 25th, 26th, 27th, 28th, 29th, 32nd and 36th senatorial districts and the 8th, 9th, 35th, 36th, 37th, 38th, 39th, 42nd, 46th, 53rd and 54th representative districts. (C 103 L 09) (C 107 L 09) (C 178 L 09) (C 187 L 09)

1911 Legislature passed a bill creating Pend Oreille County. It was included in the 2nd senatorial district and constituted the 60th representative district. (C 28 L 11)

1915 Legislature passed a bill changing the name of Chehalis County to Grays Harbor County. (C 77 L 15)

1921 Legislature passed two redistricting bills which made boundary changes in the 4th, 5th, and 7th senatorial districts and the 3rd, 4th, and 6th representative districts. (C 47 L 21) (C 167 L 21)

1923 Legislature passed a redistricting bill which made boundary changes in the 3rd and 4th senatorial districts and the 2nd and 3rd representative districts. (C 91 L 23)

HISTORY OF REAPPORTIONMENT AND REDISTRICTING IN WASHINGTON STATE

1925 Legislature passed a bill changing the spelling of Clarke County to “Clark County.” (C 51 L 25)

1927 Legislature passed a redistricting bill which made boundary changes in the 31st and 32nd senatorial districts and the 41st and 42nd representative districts. (C 221 L 27)

Legislature repealed an 1890 act which prescribed the number of senators and representatives; provided for their election and for the apportionment of the state into senatorial and representative districts. (C 127 L 27)

1929 Legislature repealed C 178 L 09 which made boundary changes in the 25th, 26th, 27th, 28th, and 29th senatorial districts and the 35th, 36th, 37th, 38th and 39th representative districts. (C 22 L 29)

1930 People redistricted by Initiative 57. State Supreme Court upheld the use of the initiative process for redistricting. The initiative provided an increase of senators from 42 to 46 and representatives from 97 to 99. Other changes were: (1) representative districts were made the same as senatorial districts; (2) each district had a minimum of two representatives; and (3) county lines were used primarily as boundaries for districts. (C 2 L 31– Effective date: January, 1931)

1933 Legislature passed two redistricting bills which made changes in boundaries of the 9th and 10th districts and the 4th and 5th districts. (C 20 L 33; C 74 L 33)

1956 People redistricted by Initiative 199. The initiative provided for 49 senate members from each of 49 districts. The house consisted of 99 members; two from each of the 49 districts and one additional member from the 31st district. (C 5 L 57)

1957 Legislature amended people’s Initiative 199. (Initiatives may be amended by 2/3 vote of both houses of the legislature.) State Supreme Court upheld amendments. Amendments did not change the number of districts; only made boundary changes. (C 289 L 57– Effective date: January, 1957)

March 1962 U.S. Supreme Court ruled in Baker v. Carr that the 14th Amendment to the U.S. Constitution provides basis for legal action on malapportionment.

July 1962 Initiative 211, a redistricting measure, certified for the November ballot after required number of signatures filed with Secretary of State.

August 1962 Thigpen v. Meyers filed in U.S. District Court for the Western District of Washington. Plaintiff sought relief for malapportionment. Court postponed hearing until after November election when people cast vote on Initiative 211.

November 1962 Initiative 211 defeated at polls – 396,419 FOR; 441,085 AGAINST.

December 1962 The U.S. District Court heard case of Thigpen v. Meyers and ruled that “existing apportionment of the Washington Legislature is invidiously discriminatory.” Court deferred final action until after 1963 legislature met “to afford it the opportunity of discharging constitutional mandate.”

April 1963 Legislature adjourned, after a 60-day regular session and a 23-day extraordinary session, without passing a redistricting bill.

May 1963 The U.S. District Court declared existing legislative districts null and void, enjoined Secretary of State (defendant) from conducting elections from existing districts.

July 1963 Secretary of State appealed to the U.S. Supreme Court and petitioned for a stay of the District Court’s judgment, pending appeal.

February 1964 The U.S. Supreme Court granted stay of proceedings in case of Thigpen v. Meyers pending appeal—in effect, restoring existing districts.

June 15, 1964 The U.S. Supreme Court ruled in Reynolds v. Sims that both houses of state legislature must be apportioned on the basis of population.

June 22, 1964 The U.S. Supreme Court rejected state’s appeal in Thigpen v. Meyers thus upholding the judgment of the District Court.

October 1964 The District Court ordered legislature to enact a constitutional reapportionment as its first order of business in the 1965 regular session. Court retained jurisdiction in order to examine any apportionment enacted by the legislature.

1965 In compliance with the order of the U.S. District Court in October 1964, the legislature could not pass any legislation until it had passed a redistricting bill.

1965 Forty-seven days after convening, the legislature passed a redistricting and reapportionment act creating 49 senatorial districts with one member elected from each district; 56 legislative districts with two representatives elected from each of 41 districts, three representatives from one district (District 42), and one from each of the remaining 14 districts (which were actually seven A-B districts), for a total of 99 representatives. (C 6 L 65–Effective date: February, 1965)

HISTORY OF REAPPORTIONMENT AND REDISTRICTING IN WASHINGTON STATE

May 1971 Legislature adjourned, after a 60-day regular session and a 60-day extraordinary session, without passing a redistricting bill.

July 1971 Prince v. Kramer, et. al., filed in U.S. District Court for the Western District of Washington. Plaintiff sought legislative and congressional redistricting of the state.

August 1971 The U.S. District Court declared 1965 redistricting laws unconstitutional and invalid. The order also enjoined the defendants (Washington State and King County election officials) from conducting any further elections under the 1965 law.

September 1971 The U.S. District Court ordered that unless the legislature shall have enacted a redistricting bill on or before February 25, 1972, the court would order the redistricting of the state.

February 1972 Legislature adjourned without passing a redistricting bill.

April 1972 The U.S. District Court established legislative district boundaries for the state in Prince v. Kramer, et. al., Civil Order No. 9668. (Effective date: April 21, 1972)

1974 Legislature passed a redistricting bill which made boundary changes in the 3rd, 4th, 5th, 6th, 13th, 14th, 23rd, 26th and 27th districts. (C 123 L 74 1st Ex. S.)

1981 Legislature passed a redistricting plan composed of 51 legislative districts. Four of the districts, 19-A, 19-B, 39-A, and 39-B were single-member representative districts and the remainder were multi-member representative districts each electing two representatives. All legislative districts were single-member senate districts, except that 19-A and 19-B were combined to form the 19th senatorial district and 39-A and 39-B were combined to form the 39th senatorial district. (C 288 L 81—Effective date: May 18, 1981). Governor Spellman accepted the revised legislative districts, but rejected the congressional district plan.

1982 A new congressional plan was passed. The measure also established an independent and bipartisan redistricting commission to begin in 1991. (C 2 L 82—Effective date: February 17, 1982) The entire bill was struck down by U.S. District Court's order in Doph, et. al. v. Munro, but the legislature was granted the first 90 days of the 1983 session to draft a new plan.

1983 A temporary citizen panel was established to redraw the congressional district boundaries as required by the Court's order in Doph. Additionally, a new independent bipartisan redistricting commission was established in law and the State Constitution and charged with both legislative and congressional redistricting. The legislature was given limited modification authority of any commission approved plan. (C 16 L 83 and Amendment 74 to the Washington State Constitution—Effective date: November 8, 1983)

1984 Legislature passed modifications to the 1983 Redistricting Act which made technical corrections and included language inadvertently omitted from the earlier act. (C 13 L 84—Effective date: June 7, 1984)

1991-1992 The first bipartisan redistricting commission authorized by the 1983 constitutional amendment was appointed in January 1991. After public hearings, the commission prepared a redistricting plan for legislative and congressional districts. The plan was officially submitted to the legislature on January 1, 1992. The 1992 legislature made only technical changes in the congressional plan (SCR 8421). The 30-day period in which the legislature could amend the commission's plan expired on February 11, 1992 and the plan became the state's districting law. (Legislative district plan codified as Chapter 44.07C RCW; congressional district plan codified as Chapter 29.69B RCW—Effective date: February 11, 1992.)

For the 1990 census, the U.S. Census Bureau reinstated the use of the overseas counts into the apportionment determination. This contributed to Massachusetts losing a House seat to Washington State. Massachusetts sued and won in the lower court. The U.S. Supreme Court however reversed the decision in 1992 and Washington kept its new congressional seat. [Franklin v. Massachusetts, 505 U.S. 788 (1992)]

1995 A new statutory deadline was established mandating that the decennial redistricting plan be adopted by the commission by December 15 of each year ending in 1 (SSB 5764, C 88, L 95).

2001-2002 Pursuant to Chapter 44.05.030 RCW, the decennial redistricting commission was appointed in January 2001. After public hearings, the commission prepared a redistricting plan for legislative and congressional districts. The legislative portion was adopted by the statutory deadline of December 15, 2001. The congressional portion was adopted by the constitutional deadline of January 1, 2002. Each portion was submitted to the legislature after each was adopted.

The 2002 legislature subsequently adopted legislation retroactively changing the statutory deadline for the submission of redistricting plans to January 1 of each year ending in two (SB 6296; C 4 L 02). The 2002 legislature also made minor amendments to the legislative plan (SCR 8429, SCR 8430) affecting the 7th & 12th, 27th & 28th and 18th & 49th districts. Although the 30-day period in which the legislature could have amended the commission plan would have expired on February 12, 2002, the legislative and congressional plan became the state's districting law on February 8, 2002, the effective dates of the amendatory resolutions. (Legislative district plan codified as Chapter 44.07D RCW; congressional district plan codified as Chapter 29A.76A RCW.)

2011-2012 Pursuant to Chapter 44.05.030 RCW, the decennial redistricting commission was appointed in January 2011. After public hearings, the commission prepared a redistricting plan for legislative and congressional districts which were submitted January 1, 2012. The 2012 Legislature amended the plan as proscribed by law (EHCR 4409) and adopted the plan as amended on February 1, 2012 (Legislative: 44.07E, RCW. Congressional: 29A.76B, RCW)

The 2012 redistricting plan was challenged on the grounds that the plan divided more government subdivisions than necessary, among other things (No. 86976-6, In re 2012 Washington State Redistricting Plan). The Court allowed the plan to stand for use during the 2012 election cycle. The petitioner withdrew the challenge later in the year and it was closed upon his passing.

2016 Constitutional amendments were passed by the voters mandating that the decennial redistricting plan be submitted by the commission by November 15 of each year ending in 1 and granting the Supreme Court until April 30 of each year ending in 2 to adopt a plan should the Commission be unable to do so. (Amendment 108, 2016 Senate Joint Resolution No. 8210. Approved November 8, 2016.)

2019 The 2019 legislature adopted legislation conforming the statutory deadlines to the constitutional deadlines: November 15 of the year ending in 1 for the submission of a redistricting plan by the Commission; April 30 of the year ending in 2 for the Supreme Court, if needed. SSB 5502; C 192 § 1, L 2019; 44.05.100 RCW

2021-2022 Pursuant to Chapter 44.05.030 RCW, the decennial redistricting commission was appointed in January 2021. After virtual public hearings and virtual and in-person consultation with tribal governments, the commission prepared a redistricting plan for legislative and congressional districts which were submitted November 16, 2022.

On November 16, the commission informed the state supreme court that, while adopting maps defined in principle, it had been unable to submit to the legislature a redistricting plan by the midnight deadline, the plan being submitted on November 16, and was ceding responsibility for adopting a redistricting plan to the court as prescribed by state law.

Finding that “the primary purpose of achieving a timely redistricting plan would be impeded, not advanced, by rejecting the commission's completed work,” the Court determined that, by voting to approve congressional and legislative redistricting plans before the end of the day on November 15, the Commission complied with its obligation under article II, subsection 43(6) of the constitution and substantially complied with its statutory deadline to submit the plan to the legislature.

The Court declined to exercise its authority to adopt a redistricting plan and ordered the commission to complete any remaining tasks in order to facilitate the process for finalizing the redistricting plan.

December 2021 Wash. Coalition for Open Gov't v. Washington State Redistricting Commission, et. al, and Arthur West v. Washington State Redistricting Commission, et. al filed challenges to the commission's conduct as violating various state requirements related to open government and transparency.

February 2022 The 2022 Legislature amended the plan as proscribed by law (HCR 4407) and adopted the plan as amended on February 8, 2022 (Legislative: 44.07F, RCW. Congressional: 29A.76C, RCW).

Palmer v. Hobbs was filed in U.S. District Court for the Western District of Washington, Tacoma - No. 3:22-cv-5035. Plaintiff sought relief on the grounds that the plan diluted the voting strength of Hispanic voters in violation of section 2 of the federal Voting Rights Act.

March 2022 Wash. Coalition for Open Gov't v. Washington State Redistricting Commission, et. al, and Arthur West v. Washington State Redistricting Commission, et. al, the cases having been consolidated, the Commission agreed to settle the Open Public records and meeting lawsuits. The consent decree for which was approved by the Thurston County Superior Court March 4, 2022.

Garcia, et. al. v. Hobbs was filed in U.S. District Court for the Western District of Washington, Tacoma - No. 3:22-cv-05152-RSL. Plaintiff sought relief on the grounds that the plan used race as a predominant factor without any compelling state interest in violation of the equal protection clause of the Fourteenth Amendment of the U.S. Constitution.

August 2023 In Palmer v. Hobbs, on Aug. 10, federal Judge Robert Lasnik struck down Washington state's legislative map for violating Section 2 of the Voting Rights Act (VRA) and gave the state until February 7, 2024 to adopt revised maps. If the Commission was unable to redraw and transmit a new map to the Legislature by Jan. 8, 2024, the Court would allow the parties to the case to submit proposed maps. The Legislature did not reconvene the Commission. The Court order stipulated that a new redistricting plan, developed with the use of special master, Karin MacDonald, PhD, would be transmitted to the Secretary of State on or before March 25, 2024 and be in effect for the 2024 election cycle. The Palmer case was appealed to both the 9th District Court of Appeals and the U.S. Supreme Court.

September 2023 Based on the August decision in Palmer, a three-judge panel of the district court dismissed the Garcia v. Hobbs case as moot. The Garcia case was appealed directly to the U.S. Supreme Court.

December 2023 The Ninth Circuit Court of Appeals and the U.S. District Court each denied requests to stay the District Court's remedial order in Palmer.

January 2024 Both cases, Palmer v. Hobbs and Garcia v. Hobbs, were listed for a U.S. Supreme Court status conference held on January 19, 2024.

February 2024 Garcia v. Hobbs judgement vacated and case was remanded to the U.S. District Court for Western Washington with instructions to enter a fresh judgment from which an appeal could be taken to the United States Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit.

March 2024 The U.S. District Court for Western Washington in Palmer adopted Remedial Map 3B submitted by plaintiffs with certain amendments made by the Secretary of State's Office, affecting 13 of the 49 districts in the state's map for use in future elections.

April 2024 Palmer v. Hobbs, the request to stay the U.S. District Court for Western Washington's injunction of the legislatively-enacted map and mandated use of its own remedial map was denied.

[Challenges to the redistricting plan filed in 2022 and the U.S. District Court's plan in 2023 remain in litigation at the time of this writing.]
