

Prominent Tucsonians Announce Their Wedding Plans

Wedding Tonight At St. Philip's

A formal ceremony before the altar at St. Philip's in the Hills tonight will unite in marriage Miss Alicia Ann Van Petten and Warwick James Hayes, Jr. Miss Van Petten is the only daughter of Dr. and Mrs. D. R. Van Petten of Palo Alto, Calif., and Phoenix. Mr. Hayes is a son of Mrs. F. D. Treat of Los Angeles and Dallas, and Mr. Warwick James Hayes of Cleveland, Ohio.

Rev. R. E. Dicus will perform the ceremony before many University of Arizona classmates and friends of the couple. The church will be decorated with white gladioli, tuberoses, and white candelabra.

Traditional organ music will be played and Miss Barbara Saxton will sing "Because," and "I Love You Truly."

The bride will be gown in a white satin and lace wedding dress, fashioned with a lace bodice and a full length train trimmed in lace. Her illusion veil, the "something borrowed," belonging to Mrs. Gilbert Hespina, is full length and caught to the head with a Dutch cap of lace. Miss Van Petten's bridal bouquet will be composed of blossom orchids encircling larger ones. She will be given in marriage by her father.

Miss Alicia Van Petten

Wedding rites to be read at 8:30 o'clock tonight will unite in marriage Miss Alicia Ann Van Petten, left, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. D. R. Van Petten, and Warwick James Hayes, Jr., both University of Arizona students. The ceremony will take place at St. Philip's-in-the-Hills. Miss Margaret Hale, right, daughter of Mrs. J. Prugh Herndon, is betrothed to Lieut. W. W. Magness, son of Mr. and Mrs. James L. Magness of Madisonville, Tex. No date for the wedding has been named. Below, Miss Jane Loew, daughter of Mrs. Mildred Zukor Loew of Tucson and Major Arthur M. Loew of Glen Cove, Long Island, is pictured in the gown she will wear tomorrow for her marriage to Lieut. Boyd Morse in Kansas City. Both Miss Loew and Lieut. Morse were outstanding high school and University of Arizona students. (Photo of Miss Van Petten by Henderson; photos of Miss Loew and Miss Hale by Geyer Studios.)

Miss Jane Loew

Miss Margaret Hale

Engagement Of Miss Hale Is Announced

University Junior Will Marry Lieut. Magness, Air Corps Officer

Col. and Mrs. J. Prugh Herndon are announcing the engagement of their daughter, Miss Margaret Hale, to Lieut. W. W. Magness, now stationed in El Paso. Lieut. Magness is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James L. Magness of Madisonville, Texas.

Miss Hale is a junior student at the University of Arizona where she is affiliated with Pi Beta Phi social sorority. She is the third generation to be a member of Pi Phi, as her mother and her grandmother, Mrs. A. O. Neal of Tucson, are alumnae of the sorority. Her father is David W. Hale of Los Angeles, Calif.

An outstanding student, Miss Hale is vice president of Phrateres, townsgirls' organization; treasurer of Associated Women Students; a member of Spurs, sophomore women's organization, P. S. T., junior women's honorary group; Kappa Omicron Phi, home economics society; Putters, golf group; and is a freshman sponsor.

Lieut. Magness attended Louisiana State University and Southern Methodist University before entering service in January, 1941. He received his commission as a Army navigator at Kelly Field, May, 1942. No wedding date has been named.

BUSINESS CLUB PLANS SOCIALS FOR OCTOBER

Luncheons, Dinners With Guest Speakers Will Be Presented

The Tucson Business and Professional Women's Club will hold a luncheon Thursday at 12 o'clock at the San Carlos cafe. For the month of October the public affairs and public relations committees will make arrangements for programs. The committee is composed of Mesdames Honorine Parker, P. H. Ross, and Sue Jorboe. The membership committee composed of Mesdames Marjorie Vinson, Georgia Norman, Mary Stubbs Moore and Miss Calanthe Brazleton, will also assist.

National business and professional women's week is to be celebrated from October 11 to 17. A dinner is scheduled to take place during this week at the home of Mrs. Anne E. Rogers, 838 North Euclid avenue. Mrs. Edna Miller will be co-hostess. At this time the mayor and city engineer will be guests and will speak to the members on the subject of city planning and zoning. Post-war considerations concerning airports and other areas near and in Tucson will be discussed.

The membership committee is making plans for a tea which is to take place October 17. Initiation of new members will be held at this time.

Helping in the United Appeal drive are the following members: Mesdames Ann Rovin, Hattie Solomon, Gertrude Lynn, Agnes Martin, Peggy Goodsell, and Josie Trinkle.

Other activities of the club are the USO birthday parties, and the furnishing of senior sponsors at the Y.W.D.L. dances.

Former Tucson Resident Wed In New York

Miss Jeanne Storer Becomes Bride Of Lieut. McKittrick

Miss Jeanne Storer, daughter of Mrs. Lorraine Storer of Los Angeles and formerly of Tucson, was married last Sunday to Lieutenant Ralph McKittrick, U. S. N. R., son of Mrs. J. Clifford Rosengarten of Woodley, Villanova, Pa., in the Episcopal Church of the Transfiguration, New York City, by the Rev. Charles A. Weatherly.

The bride, given in marriage by her mother, wore a light blue dress, with a matching hat of feathers, and a corsage of orchids. Samuel P. Howe, Jr. of Haverford, Pa., was best man for the bridegroom.

A reception was given later at the Savoy-Plaza.

The bride attended the Monticello school in Los Angeles and the Chevy Chase school in Washington. Lieutenant McKittrick was graduated from the University of Virginia in 1931 and studied at the University of Pennsylvania.

The couple left immediately after the ceremony for a two weeks honeymoon in New Orleans, La. They will return to Mexico to make their home. Dr. Romo is medical director of the Southern Pacific hospital in Guadalajara. He was graduated from the University of Guadalajara and took his internship in the general hospital in San Francisco, Calif.

Dr. Jorge Romo Married To Miss Rebeil At Nuptial Mass

Residents Of Mexico Are Wed At Nuptial Mass Thursday

Miss Olga Elizabeth Rebeil of Tucson and Sonora, Mexico, and Dr. Jorge Romo of Guadalajara, Mexico, were married Thursday morning. The nuptial mass was said at 8 o'clock in San Augustin cathedral by Monsignor Lewis Romo, uncle of the bridegroom.

The couple left immediately after the ceremony for a two weeks honeymoon in New Orleans, La. They will return to Mexico to make their home. Dr. Romo is medical director of the Southern Pacific hospital in Guadalajara. He was graduated from the University of Guadalajara and took his internship in the general hospital in San Francisco, Calif.

U. S. Ettes Will Entertain For Davis-Monthan Soldiers

The U. S. Ettes, organization of Catholic girls to sponsor entertainments for Army personnel stationed near Tucson, will hold a formal dance at 8 o'clock Tuesday evening in All Saint's hall.

A fall theme will be used and autumn flowers in purple and gold tone will predominate in decorations. Gerald Swanick will act as master of ceremonies during the program which is being planned to entertain the men of Davis-Monthan Field.

Miss Franco Is Married To L. A. Berger

Miss Beulah Rose Franco, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Franco, was married to Mr. Leonard A. Berger Monday, September 14, in Phoenix.

The ceremony was performed by Judge Harry E. Westfall at his home.

Mrs. Berger is a granddaughter of the late Pinkney Randolph Tully, California banker and first territorial treasurer of Arizona. She attended Villa Carondelet, St. Joseph's Academy, and was graduated from the University of Arizona. Mrs. Berger has been prominent in musical circles in Arizona and was the composer of the score for a dance recital in the drama department given at the university one season.

Mr. Berger is a son of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Berger formerly of Madison, Wis. and now of Tucson. They will make their home at 1920 North Oracle road where Mr. Berger is in business.

Presiding at the punch bowl will be Mrs. Harold W. Kohl, Mrs. Camil Van Hulse, Mrs. Louis Felix, Mrs. Frank C. O'Reilly, Mrs. Austin McWhorter and Mrs. Lila Dean.

Chaperons attending are Capt. and Mrs. Fred Finney, Col. and Mrs. Ralph B. Garretson, Chaplain George V. Gerner, Rev. Francis J. Grogan, Rev. John L. Howard, Rev. Arthur Cramer, Rev. Francis X. Donnellan, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Michel, Mr. and Mrs. Louis J. Felix, Dr. and Mrs. Jos. C. Reagan, Mr. and Mrs. Alex G. Jacome, Mr. and Mrs. John R. Batchelor, Mr. and Mrs. Frank C. O'Reilly, Mr. and Mrs. Austin McWhorter, Mr. and Mrs. Camil A. J. Van Hulse, Mr. and Mrs. Edo De Conchini, Mr. and Mrs. Michael P. McCarthy, Mr. and Mrs. John L. Metz, Dr. and Mrs. Harold W. Kohl, Mrs. Anna Sulinger, Mrs. Lila Dean, Mrs. Marie Gleaves, Mrs. Sebastian Fink, Mr. Frank Stener, Mr. Emmett Quinlan and Mr. Stephen Tormey.

Churchwomen Plan Fall Tea For Tuesday

Gerald Jones Home, El Encanto, To Be Scene Of Party

The Congregational church women will hold their annual fall tea from 3:30 to 5:30 o'clock Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Gerald Jones, El Encanto Estates.

Tables will be decorated with fall garden flowers and tapers. Pouring will be Mesdames Albert Sames and Kirk Hart from 3:30 to 4:30 o'clock, and George Reid and R. H. Forbes from 4:30 to 5:30 o'clock.

The executive committee is giving the tea with Mrs. O. L. Kettnerbach as chairman. Others assisting are: Mesdames Warren Grossetta, Paul Burgess, Charles Dickrell, Gordon Mattison, R. A. Dawson, M. Middleton, L. C. Kelley, C. N. Hagius, L. Grady, Herman Lagre, E. J. Rissen, Clarence Falk, and Miss Margaret Knight.

Director Of Drama School Arrives Here

Miss Mary Farrell, Member Of Manhattan Players, And Producer Here

Miss Mary Farrell, director of the Tucson School of the Theatre, and Miss Helen Harmon, producer of Manhattan Players, professional stock company, have arrived to open their 1942-43 season.

The school will open October 15, operating in affiliation with the Manhattan Players, and conduct classes through April 1. Students whose ability and progress warrant auditions for parts in the professional plays will have an opportunity to appear before the public.

All Day Classes

Classes are scheduled to take place from 10 until 4 o'clock each day, with training in the dramatic fundamentals. Plans are being made to add radio classes later. Student productions will be presented throughout the season.

The Manhattan Players, with six resident members, will begin a 10 weeks season in November. Recent Broadway successes will be presented every other week with outstanding guest stars of stage and screen appearing as the lead in each show. Supporting roles will be played by members of the Manhattan Players and talented students from the school.

Evening classes will be conducted from 7:30 to 9:30 o'clock Mondays and Thursdays. Classrooms and laboratory theater of the schools are located in the Temple of Music and Art building.

Miles P.T.A. Plans To Have 'Open House'

The Miles Parent Teacher Association will begin the 1942-43 season with an open house Wednesday afternoon at the school. Visitors have been invited to drop in between 1 and 4 o'clock at the school. In this way they will have an opportunity to watch the children at work and become acquainted with the teachers.

The executive board of the organization will act as hostesses at the open house and tea. The reception committee is composed of: Mesdames J. M. Quigins, R. T. Black, George White, Harry Julian, E. H. Mouch, and Mr. R. V. Kessler.

In charge of refreshments are Mesdames R. D. Phillips, L. A. Harris, and Charles Spencer. Mrs. Quigins is in charge of table decorations.

Presiding at the tea tables will be Mesdames Jack Clark, Paul Williams, Charles Spencer, and R. V. Kessler.

Mrs. Quigins, president of the organization, is inviting all parents to attend the opening function. Especially invited are parents of children beginning in school and those who are now in the community.

Menlo Park P.T.A. To Have Reception Wednesday Night

The Menlo Park P.T.A. will have the first meeting of the year Wednesday, September 30 at 8 o'clock in the school.

Mrs. Paul Denney, president of the organization, announces the following officers of the organization: Mrs. Dean Frost, secretary, and Mrs. L. C. Peterson, treasurer.

Program chairman, Mrs. Harold Rickman, will present Mr. M. H. Babby, sector warden for the community, who will speak on "Civilian Defense." Questions will be asked and answered during the talk.

Mrs. W. L. Bierbaum will speak to the group on the salvage campaign, and the Red Cross work the group plans to do this year will also be discussed.

A reception for the teachers will close the meeting. Members of the executive board will be hostesses and serve refreshments.

Students To Be Feted At Church Breakfast

Miss Jeanne Storer, daughter of Mrs. Lorraine Storer of Los Angeles and formerly of Tucson, was married August 20 in New York City. The bridegroom is Lieut. Ralph McKittrick, son of Mrs. J. Clifford Rosengarten of Woodley, Villanova, Pa., and a nephew of the late Joseph Pulitzer.

Become Brides At Recent Rites

Miss Beulah Rose Franco, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Franco, became the bride of Leonard A. Berger in Phoenix September 14. Mrs. Berger has been associated in business in Tucson since her graduation from the University of Arizona. The couple will make their home in Tucson. (Photo by Vogue Studio.)

Piano Pupils To Be Presented In Recital Sunday

To open the new season, Mrs. Frank Watt Smith will present a group of piano pupils in recital at 4:30 o'clock Sunday in her studio at 2716 East Sixth street. This is the first of the monthly recitals which are features of the studio's work throughout the school year.

The half-hour programs are conducted by the pupils and are completely informal. A short vespers service is sometimes given at the close of the recital. This is also entirely conducted by the students. Both Mrs. Smith and her pupils are inviting their friends to attend.

Those playing Sunday are: Gene Baldwin, Avalyn Wilson, Yvonne Baffert, Mary Kate Zinn, Nancy Kern, Barbara Baldwin, Jeannette Smith, Helen Kern, Clark Shelley, Loren Wood and Ernestine Hill.

D.A.R. Members To Meet On Thursday

Mrs. Rocla Johnson will be hostess for the October meeting of the Tucson chapter Daughters of the American Revolution on Thursday at 2:30 o'clock. Mrs. Johnson will be assisted by Mesdames R. R. Hall, James Howsara, J. W. Lawson, C. E. Benesma, Scott B. Apply, George Amos, J. W. Bland, A. O. Neal and Miss Eunice Bland.

Reports of the fifty-first Continental Congress will be given by Mrs. J. S. Bayless and Mrs. Harvey J. Mallory. The Continental Congress was held in Chicago in May of this year and was attended by Mrs. Bayless and Mrs. Mallory as delegates from the Tucson chapter.

An invitation is given to members visiting in Tucson to attend the meeting.

There will be a meeting of the board of managers at the home of Mrs. Ivan Peters Wednesday morning at 9:30 o'clock.

Carillon Club To Have Installation

The Carillon club will hold formal installation of officers at 7 o'clock Sunday in Hedrick chapel. Rev. Frank Williams will conduct the candlelight service.

Officers to be installed are: president, William Dunpape; devotion chairman, Katherine Blanton; secretary, Wilma Brown; treasurer, Virginia Dickerson; music, Elaine Brown; recreation, Sgt. Lane Leopold; publicity, Betty Kirby; social service, Mrs. Glenn Chalk; personnel, Mrs. William Dunpape.