

FORRESTER-DAWSON—A home wedding of much beauty was solemnized at Miskimon February 23, at 7 o'clock, when Miss Irene Lillian, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Dawson, became the bride of Mr. Levi Jefferson Forrester, of Brown's Store. The ceremony was performed by their pastor, Rev. W. F. Dunaway in the presence of the family and a few intimate friends. The parlor was beautifully decorated, the color scheme being green and white. The couple stood under a large horse-shoe which was hung in the arch. The bridal party entered the parlor under strains of the wedding march, sweetly rendered by Miss Bessie Ashburne while the music was turned by Wharton Dawson, brother of the bride. "Mine Alone" was played very softly during the ceremony. The party entered in the following order: First the two little flower girls, Virgie Forrester and Genevra Dawson, sisters of the bride and bridegroom elect, each carrying baskets of evergreen and white roses. Next came the attendants, Miss Maggie Lamkin with Mr. Elgin Forrester; Miss Martha Marsh with Mr. Josie Dawson brother of the bride; Miss Florence Dawson with Mr. Summie Forrester, brother and sister respectively of the bridegroom and bride. Next the bride and groom. The bride was gowned in a beautiful white silk elaborately trimmed with laces and insertion with a long veil, and carrying white bride roses and ferns looped with white ribbon. The brides maids wore white and carried white carnations with ferns looped with white ribbon. The groom and groomsmen wearing conventional black. A meat and confectionary supper was served immediately after the ceremony. The bride was the recipient of many beautiful presents. We extend to them congratulations and best wishes for a long, happy and prosperous life.
