WOOL GROWERS OF WASHINGTON
IN CONVENTIONFour Hundred Delegates to Attend Annual Meeting in Yakima, That Will Be Addressed by Experts

By Associated Press.

YAKIMA, Wednesday, Jan. 11.— Wool growers of the state opened their twenty-sixth annual convention here today. Four hundred delegates are expected to attend. D. E. Burlingame of Walla Walla responded to the welcome of the Yakima mayor at the opening session.
Gov. Roland H. Hartley will deliver an address tomorrow afternoon, followed by F. J. Hagenbarth, president of the national association. D.
W. Hartzell of Chicago, B. N. Kavanaugh of Portland, A. Richie Smith of Chelan County and Glen Smith, Montana, and Idaho representative of National Forest Reserves. Dr.
Robert Prior and Dr. J. E. Eklund, federal experts, are other speakers on the program.
Dr. E. C. Holland of Washington State College, Clark V. Seavidge, Ward M. Buckles of Spokane and Erle J. Barnes of Olympia also will speak. The annual banquet will be held tomorrow night. Dr. Holland will give the address.OREGON SHEEP MEN CLOSE CONVENTION AT PENDLETONPENDLETON, Ore., Wednesday, Jan. 11.—(AP)—The Oregon Wool Growers' Association closed its annual convention here today. The association was organized by C. Warner of Pendleton and Roy Thompson of Heppner vice president. Fred Phillips of Baker was elected secretary. The thirty-first annual convention of the association closed last night.
Frank J. Hagenbarth, president of the national association, said the sheep men that unless the wool growers wish to sacrifice the greater part of their revenue, steps must be taken to increase the use of lamb throughout the country. The national association already has sponsored an "eat more lamb" campaign in the Middle West with "very satisfactory" results, Mr. Hagenbarth said.MOTHER FIGHTING FOR TWO CHILDRENStep-Parent Also Seeks to Keep Possession of Girl and Boy She Has Learned to Love.A boy and a girl waited outside the courtroom of Judge Malcolm Douglas today while their stepmother and their mother battled for their possession. Called to the stand, the boy said he preferred to go to his mother.
His sister said she preferred remaining with her stepmother.
The children were Loretta Beach Jones, 14 years old, and Ethel Vivian Jones, 11. Their stepmother, Mrs.
Martha Marie Jones, the widow of W. Beach Jones, who died December 4, 1922, says she was named their guardian by their father, whom she had married after his divorce from the children's mother, and that he left half his estate to the children and half to the stepmother of his children. She says also that she received $12,000 in insurance at the time of her husband's death, that she is attached to the children, and that she wishes to keep them and to spend her money in their upbringing.
Arrayed in opposition is Mrs.
Muriel Irene Kahrs, 215 Grand St., who in 1918 married C. Bernal Kahrs, after her divorce from the father of her children, says her present husband is willing to adopt the boy and the girl if their custody is entrusted to her.Onion Tariff Hearing Will Resume Feb. 9WASHINGTON, Wednesday, Jan.
11.—(AP)—Concluding an investigation of the difference in cost of producing and marketing onions in Spain, Egypt and the United States, a tariff commission will hold a hearing here February 9.
The inquiry is undertaken at the request of onion growers of the United States who claim severe losses in 1922 as a result of large importations from Spain and Egypt despite the American tariff of $1 a hundred pounds.
Representative Summers, Republican, Washington, who has notified onion growers of the Yakima Valley of the impending hearing, is authorized for the statement that the state of Washington produces about thirty million pounds of onions annually.Rites Tomorrow For Mrs. Mary P. RogersFuneral services for Mrs. Mary P.
Rogers, 75 years old, widow of Dr.
Corydon Rogers, a Seattle physician for twenty-three years, will be held in the Mount Baker Community Church at 3 o'clock tomorrow afternoon, followed by cremation. The Rev. Dr. W. A. Major will officiate.
Mrs. Rogers, who had been a resident of Seattle for twenty-eight years, died at her residence, 3000 College St., early yesterday after a long illness. She accompanied her husband when he came to Seattle from Minneapolis in 1900.
Surviving are four sons, Corydon T. Rogers, Evanston, Ill., and Clyde E. Roy D. and Clarence of Seattle, and one daughter, Mrs. Frank W.
Reif, of Seattle.H. S. Nash Rites Planned.TACOMA, Wednesday, Jan. 11.— recommended thisOne woman, who had long suffered from a severe case of eczema, says:

"For many months I was constantly bothered. I tried four or five different remedies without success.
Then my doctor recommended Resinol. Almost instantly the discomfort stopped, and a week or ten days later the rash was almost cleared." Thousands of others have had the same results with Resinol. It is absolutely safe to use. All druggists.Resinol*CUT IN AUTOMOBILE LICENSE FEES URGEDYakima County Farm Bureau Would Make Up Deficiency by Raising Gasoline Tax.

By Associated Press.

YAKIMA, Wednesday, Jan. 11.— Recommendation that license fees on trucks and automobiles be made nominal and that any deficiency in receipts for road purposes be made up by raising the gasoline tax was made yesterday in the annual meeting of the Yakima County Farm Bureau. The consensus was that the gasoline tax was the most equitable of any tax furnishing highway funds.
The bureau also recommended that a change be made in the regulations applying to spray residue whereby fruit be taken out of the vegetable class and that the tolerance be made practicable. This matter will be brought before the federal authorities.Revision of the federal grades to take into account the qualities and growing conditions of the Yakima Netted Gem potato was advocated, as was the move for national advertising of Northwest boxed apples.
Officers elected were President, R. E. Finnell of Outlook; vice president, Arthur Karr of Yakima; andJ. F. Schriener of Yakima; recording secretary, H. B. Shiley of Naches; treasurer, C. L. Miller of Fairview.

Dry Raiders Nab Couple.

K. Hashimoto, 62 years old, and J.
Saki, 39, were arrested after the police dry squad raided the Horseshoe Hotel, 115 Washington St., late last night. Three gallons of whiskey were seized, police say. The men are held under $500 bail each on charges of possessing liquor with intent to sell.
