of God is he which cometh down from heaven, and giveth life unto the world" (John 6:33).

Among the citations which comprise the lesson-sermon is the following from the Bible: "And when lowing from the Bible: "And when lowing his topic will be "How to Sunthe chief Shepherd shall appear, ye ply All Our Needs" and at the eveshall receive a crown of glory that fadeth not away" (I Peter 5:4). The lesson-sermon also includes the following passage from the by Mary Baker Eddy: "Implicit faith in the Teacher and all the emotional love we can bestow on him, will never alone make us imitators of him. We must go and do likewise, else we are not improving the great blessings which our Master worked and suffered to bestow upon us." (p. 25).

Transylvania Athlete Gets Lions' Plaque At Student Assembly

Presentation of the bronze plaque symbolizing the Lexington Lions Club's annual award to the most popular member of the Transylvania College football team was made during weekly student assembly yesterday to Joe Presznick, senior student from Wadsworth, Ohio. Robert Byars, club member and an alumnus of the college, made the award.

Presznick was chosen for the honor by a special club committee after consultations with sports writers and members of the Transylvania coaching staff. A tackle on the team, he was selected for his football ability, classwork, character, spirit, attitude on the practice field and conduct off the gridiron.
