Richmond Times-Dispatch (VA) - Tuesday, December 9, 2014

Deceased Name: KILDUFF, MEADE

KILDUFF, Meade Neale, passed away December 8, 2014 at age 96. She was predeceased by her parents, Alma Brent Neale and M. Mercer Neale; and her husband, W. Leslie Kilduff Sr. She is survived by two sons, W. Leslie Kilduff Jr. and William Brent Kilduff, their wives, Arlene, and Lee; and grandchildren, Carrington Blincoe, Kyle Kilduff and Anna Kilduff. Mrs. Kilduff was born May 17, 1918 and was baptized at St. Stephen's Episcopal Church, Heathsville, Va. She remained a lifelong member of the Episcopal Church and of St. Stephen's for over 65 years. After her early education in Donora, Pa., she graduated from Longwood College, which is now Longwood University and later attained the first Masters degree in the Science of Guidance awarded by the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill. After her marriage in 1948, she settled in Heathsville, Va., raised her children and both taught and served as a guidance counselor in the Northumberland County public school system. Mrs. Kilduff was a member of the honorary teacher's society, Delta Kappa Gamma and remained interested in education throughout her life. She tutored students in Latin and assisted for many years with adult education in Northumberland County. She served on the Board of the Northumberland County Historical Society and was instrumental in the establishment of the Rice's Inn, Hughlett's Tavern Foundation. She was a member of the Daughters of the American Revolution, Colonial Dames and the Garden Clubs in the Northern Neck and Virginia, as well as the Woman's Club of Northumberland County. Mrs. Kilduff worked tirelessly and contributed generously to the establishment of the Northumberland County Library. A memorial service will be held at St. Stephen's Episcopal Church in Heathsville on Saturday, December 13, 2014 at 2 p.m. In lieu of flowers, gifts may be made to St. Stephen's Episcopal Church, P.O. Box 40, Heathsville, Va. 22473. Online remembrances may be made at jonesashfuneralhome.com
