In Memoriam

COBBS — In loving remembrance of my husband, daddy, and PaPa, Mr. Clyde (Corny) W. Cobb who passed away three years ago today, August 3, 1971.

The world seems but our smiling faces, Thus maybe thinks you've been forgot; But you can look deep in our hearts, And see the scars that prove you're not. Wife, Children, Grandchildren and Great Grandson

DAVIS — In loving memory of my husband, F. Wilson Davis, who passed away four years ago today, August 3, 1970.

A very special tribute. I pay to you each day. For the love, joy and comfort. You always brought my way. For your patient understanding. Through all the bygone years. Your kind and helping hand. Your words of praise and cheer. You always stood beside me. No matter what I'd do. And the greatest gift of life, Darling. Was the precious gift of you. Wife, Mary

SULLIVAN — In loving memory of wife and mother, Corrie Lee Sullivan on her birthday, August 3.

This message is sent to you above. From your family who wish you here. May your birthday be remembered for years to come. And each time we hope you are near. Family, John L., Dianne, Mary and Joan

JOHNSON — In loving memory of my son, and our brother, Sandy Lee (Lulu) Johnson, who passed away Aug. 3, 1954.

Each time we look at your picture, You seem to smile and say, "Don't grieve, I'm only sleeping. We'll meet again someday." The Family

HOWLETT — In loving memory of our parents and grandparents, Portia and Collins (Jack) Howlett, Jr., who passed away August 3, 1968, July 19, 1970.

The way they talked, the smile they wore. And all the thousand things so dear. We loved about them while they lived. Haven't gone with them from here. They're planted deep in memory's garden. And watered daily with our tears. To keep them ever fresh and vivid. Through all the coming years. Children and Grandchildren
